

Air Force Association Award to Outstanding CAP Cadets

Written by Maj. Jeffrey Morris

Sunday, 28 December 2008 09:54 -

Air Force Association Award to Outstanding CAP Cadets award timeline. Air Force Association Award to Outstanding CAP Cadets. The Air Force Association currently recognizes the outstanding CAP cadet in each squadron. Unit Commanders forward their selection, along with a summary of the cadet's accomplishments, directly to the Air Force Association Headquarters who prepares the award elements and forwards them to the appropriate AFA unit for presentation. The Air Force Association has requested that all requests for this award be submitted to their Headquarters not later than 15 January each year. This date now corresponds with the date unit nominations for cadet of the year are due to the wing headquarters.